

BEAUTIFUL HOTEL DESTINATIONS

Somewhere along the way, hotels have become rightful destinations on their own. Here are some that are currently on top of our wander list.

Six Senses Yao Noi

📍 Phang Nga, Thailand

Phang Nga Bay has to be one of the world's most spectacular seascapes and it sets the stage for your magical stay on Koh Yao Noi. Just 45 minutes from Phuket, this Six Senses island resort in Thailand is as close to nature's luxury as you can be. Here, it's not just green, but every shade of blue and it's ready and waiting for you. It's Thailand reimaged. "Stilted and thatched" sets the mood for all-pool villas and suites that perch like plush tree houses within tropical greenery. Choose dramatic bay or romantic forest views and from one to four bedrooms. All the creature comforts, the soul-soothing spa and your personal GEM (Guest Experience Maker) make this a vacation with uplifting discoveries at every turn.

Chablé Yucatán

📍 Yucatán, Mexico

Chablé Yucatán recovers the splendor of the aristocracy and the bases of Mayan well-being. It's true: luxury attracts, as beauty does. As knowledge, as health. But today, luxury is not only being surrounded by fine objects: it is a way of seeing the world, of living in harmony, of receiving through the door of the senses the gift of the world. The hotel has pre-Hispanic-style temazcals or saunas, meditation lawns with fireflies dancing about and a cenote (pool) for lazy dips before an enriching treatment at the spa. The 19th century estate features a contemporary Mexican aesthetic where wellness seekers can wind down, amid the Yucatán jungle.

La Mamounia

📍 Marrakech, Morocco

Ravishing and regal, La Mamounia hotel is set and styled in Moorish opulence. The hotel saw the likes of the great Winston Churchill walking through its halls, evident in the eponymous suite as a tribute to him. The journey begins in the corridors of La Mamounia, which magically reproduce Medina's narrow streets. Behind the characteristic wooden doors that protect guests' privacy lie 135 rooms, 71 suites and 3 riads, where the quintessence of Moroccan craftsmanship is expressed in all its splendour, alongside impeccable contemporary decorations. The four restaurants at La Mamounia offer shaded terraces, fresh produce harvested from the hotel's garden and unbound creativity. When in Marrakech, it's only right to indulge and pamper yourself at its spa. Follow the stairs and let the lanterns' chiaroscuro effect guide the way to La Mamounia's Spa. It is a veritable sanctuary dedicated to beauty and well-being.

Le Sereno

📍 St Barths, St. Barthélemy

You could call it Paris-on-sea – with all the poise, style and Missoni bikinis that it implies. St. Barths is one of the original jet set destinations, where celebrity meets society in a cosmopolitan crowd. While the design-driven hotel is new, loyal guests will feel that little has changed and will continue to enjoy Le Sereno's signature approach to relaxed luxury and attentive service. Join the turtles and tropical fish at Le Sereno's coral reef cove and, when underwater adventures pall, retreat to the handsome hotel's Parisian-style rooms as the day ends. For stunning seascape, opt for the Grand Suite Plage, where the beach is merely a few footsteps away.
