

A Glittering Deepavali Soiree

DATO' GARY THANASAN AND FAMILY AT LUCA, BANGSAR SHOPPING CENTRE

The festive spirit of Deepavali illuminated the elegant Luca restaurant at Bangsar Shopping Centre recently, as Gary Thanasan and his family hosted a resplendent soiree to mark the Festival of Lights. The evening was a perfect blend of cultural vibrancy and modern sophistication, with an intimate gathering of family, friends, and well-wishers, all eager to celebrate the triumph of light over darkness.

Guests were welcomed into Luca's chic and contemporary setting, adorned with thematic Deepavali decorations, including intricate kolam designs, radiant oil lamps, and fresh floral arrangements. The gentle strains of classical Indian music set the tone, blending harmoniously with the laughter and camaraderie of attendees.

Gary Thanasan, known for his warm and gracious hospitality, and his family, exuded charm as they greeted their guests, making everyone feel at home. In his brief welcome speech, Gary highlighted the essence of Deepavali as a time for reflection, gratitude, and fostering meaningful connections.
